

Learn the Ancient Letters!

A Paleo-Hebrew Adventure for Kids

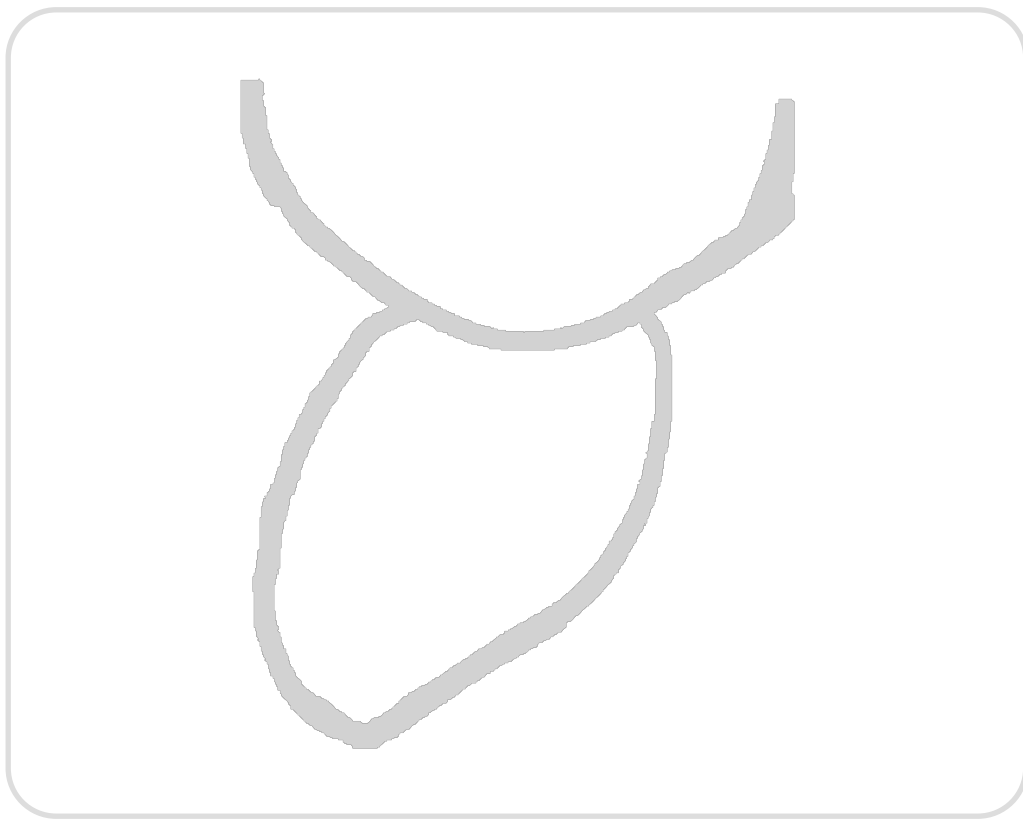

Every letter started as a little picture. Let's trace, color, and learn what they mean!

from "The House of the Highest One God" by Malachi Ben-Amram

This is Aleph!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of an OX.

It means: God — strong and mighty!

✍ Trace the letter, then color the picture!

This is Bet!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of a HOUSE.

It means: house, family, and home

✍ Trace the letter, then color the picture!

This is Mem!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of WATER.

It means: water and waves

 Trace the letter, then color the picture!

This is Nun!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of a SEED.

It means: new life that grows

 Trace the letter, then color the picture!

This is Vav!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of a NAIL.

It means: it holds things together — like the nails of the Cross

 Trace the letter, then color the picture!

This is Tav!

Long ago, this letter was a picture of a CROSS.

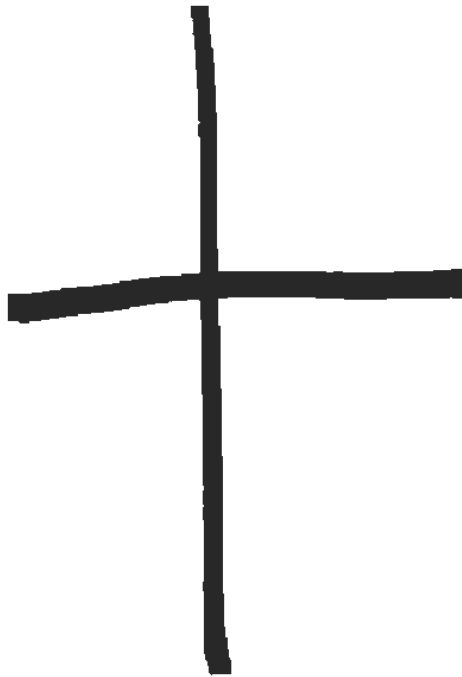

It means: a cross — a special mark!

 Trace the letter, then color the picture!

Find the Cross!

The very last letter, Tav, was drawn as a cross.
Color it bright — it points all the way to Jesus!

Grown-ups: the full study is in “The House of the Highest One God.”